

Pictures: Enrica van der Linden Architectural Design

them to accept my design ideas, which then resulted in more than what they bargained for... and it was for the better".

Post-restoration there is a lot to be admired in this home, but Van der Linden's favourite spaces are the living, dining and kitchen areas that now have spectacular views and lead out onto the balconies and patios.

"There is much to be said for restoring more classical homes. When preparing a renovation design, it is important to look at the design from all aspects and come up with various solutions. There are so many ways to alter an existing home, within the same brief. The best solution finds its way out very quickly," says Van der Linden. 🏡

Enrica van der Linden Architectural Design www.enricavanderlinden.co.za

With thanks to Changing Spaces Interior Design and Enrica van der Linden Architectural Design

